The lapel pin portrays the value of the Guild in modern form. The main symbol is the cross, as in the old badge, reminding members of Christ and the call to dedication in the Guild Aim. The colour is graduated from top to bottom, symbolising the blessings coming down from God, or, from bottom to top, indicating growth and development in the things of God, from weakness to strength. The Hands are symbolic of prayer, fellowship and support for the growth of the Kingdom through the Aim. The Dove is symbolic of the Holy Spirit. The traditional colours of red, white and blue are enclosed within a gold band to suggest completeness, richness and purity.
